In collaboration with the Communauté de communes Flandre Lys

- DETAILS

Temporary installation of stretched tarpaulin in the middle of tables of the boardroom of the Flandre Lys community council. I was invited by the community president to create an installation on the occasion of the community council meeting. I have roped a tarpaulin (from the technical department), to the tables in the meeting room, to form a catamaran. I wanted to take possession of the void around which the counselors are usually seated. That evening the counselors met around the installation.

tarpaulin, string, 0,9 x 5 x 8 m,
duration 1/2 day
